

Watch the service together

Today, watch our Contemporary service together and see some familiar CCK family faces.

-After the service talk to your children about where you have experienced 'God moments' this past week. And ask them what moments stand out to them from this past week that they believe was God.

- Pray together asking God to help you experience Him and his goodness in a special way this coming week.